

You are welcome to the seminar

Social responsibility and children in war

By Finnish Psychologists for Social Responsibility
The Finnish National Board of Education & UNESCO

Tuesday 24.10.2006 at 10-15.30

The Finnish National Board of Education, Hakaniemenkatu 2, 00530 Helsinki
7th floor, room 7106A and 7106B, more exact guidance at info desk

- 10.00 Opening
 Mr. Pekka Elo, Senior Adviser, Finnish National Board of Education, Associated Schools Project Network – ASP net National Coordinator, UNESCO
- Introductory remarks
 Ms Sirkku Kivistö, chairperson Finnish Psychologists for Social Responsibility
 (FPSR)
- 10.20-11.20 How to cope in refugee camps during a war and poor living conditions
 Mr Kassem Aina, Director General, National Institution of Social Care and Vocational Training - Beit Atfal Assumoud (BAS), Beirut, Lebanon.
- 11.20–12.00 Children´s stories and testimonies during and after the war in 2006 - message to adults collected by the storycrafting-method.
 Ms Jamilé Shehadé, social worker in charge, BAS and Ms Kirsti Palonen, vice-chairperson, FPSR
- 12.00-13.00 Lunch
- 13.00–13.30 Sharing the experience of war with children and protecting the childhood; activities of
 BAS during the war
 Mr Kassem Aina and Ms Jamilé Shehadé
- 13.30-14.00 Psychological interventions and resilience building among war-traumatized children
 Ms Raija-Leena Punamäki, professor, University of Tampere, Dept of Psychology
- 14.00–14.15 Coffee break
- 14.15-15.15 Round table discussion: Solidarity and social responsibility from paper to practice;
 Developing cooperation to meet the needs and human rights of Palestinians in Lebanon
 Mr Kassem Aina: Palestinian point of view
 Ms Sirkku Kivistö: Finnish point of view
 Facilitator Mr Ferdinand Garoff, secretary, FPSR
- 15.15 Closing words
 Ms Sirkku Kivistö

Registration by October 18th 2006 to email address: info@psykologiensosiaalinenvastuu.fi (name, profession, work, email address, phone number)